ADEL & LAWNSWOOD

The Rob Burrow Leeds Marathon takes place on Sunday 14 May 2023 and will require road closures and parking restrictions in your area. Over 12,000 participants will take on the 26.2-mile course, which starts and finishes at Headingley Stadium. The circular marathon route will take in some of Leeds' most scenic countryside and outer suburbs, journeying around Woodhouse Moor before travelling up through Headingley, Adel, Pool in Wharfedale, Otley and Bramhope and back for the big finish.

This leaflet provides specific access details for Adel & Lawnswood residents.

You'll find further information, including a list of Vehicle Crossing Points to help drivers cross the route safely, at runforall.com

ROAD CLOSURES

Roads around Adel and Lawnswood will start to close from 0830 on Sunday 14th May.

Roads will re-open as soon as it is safe to do so and the final runners have passed through the area, at approximately 1620.

A full interactive map of all the road closures, timings and diversions can be found at runforall.com

ACCESS / EGRESS

Access and egress for Adel will be using Adel Lane or Long Causeway > Weetwood Lane > A1620.

Access and egress for Lawnswood will be maintained via Spen Lane and the A6120.

For movement across the city east to west and vice versa, please use the signed diversion via Kirkstall Road, Inner Ring Road and Scott Hall Road.

Please note no access will be available across Lawnswood Roundabout after 0850.

VEHICLE CROSSING POINT

There are points across the route indicated here where we will facilitate vehicle crossing points, these are as follows;

- St Helens Lane to New Adel Lane until 0900

Residents are advised that vehicles will NOT be able to cross while there are participants on both carriageways of the A660 Otley Road, however once the density of runners has decreased marshals are advised to use their discretion to allow vehicles to cross only when it is safe to do so

PARKING RESTRICTIONS

Any vehicles parked on the route will be removed. Please assist us by moving your vehicle off the route on the evening of Saturday 13 May. If your vehicle is relocated by event contractors, please contact Run For All.

BUSINESS & TRANSPORT

We hope that businesses will remain open as usual on the day and have been in touch with them to with the expectation of large numbers of spectators watching across the marathon route. Please check with the businesses that they will be open prior to visiting them.

Some bus services will be displaced and diverted by the marathon route, therefore we advise that you check via one of the following methods, prior to travel;

- Bus service providers website (i.e. First Bus)
- West Yorkshire Combined Authority website – will detail bus diversions and alterations
- Bus stops will advise of changes to normal services
